FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

The Fund delivered 0.27% in January 2025, which was outperforming the benchmark by 1bps, and delivered 3.25% in the 12-months period ending 31 January 2025, outperforming the benchmark by 17bps.

Bank Negara Malaysia kept the overnight policy rate at 3.00% for the 10th consecutive meeting in January 2025, in line with market expectations. At the current OPR level, the monetary policy stance remains supportive of the economy and is consistent with the current assessment of inflation and growth prospects.

In December, headline inflation moderated to 1.7%, which was below market consensus and November's print of 1.8% (October: 1.9%). Prices eased for furnishing, household maintenance, health, recreation and miscellaneous items while restaurant & accommodation services as well as food & beverages inched higher. For full year 2024, inflation stood at 1.8%, easing for the second straight year. Meanwhile, core inflation was lower at 1.6% in December (November: 1.8%).

Exports from Malaysia surged by 16.9% YoY to a 27-month high of MYR 138.5 billion in December 2024. It was the third straight month of increase and the fastest pace since September 2022, boosted by strengthening foreign demand as the year-end approached. By sector, manufacturing sales surged 18.5%, lifted by E&E products (27.8%), machinery and equipment (16.3%), and petroleum products (8.4%). Meanwhile, Imports to Malaysia rose by 11.9% YoY to a 4-month high of MYR 119.34 billion in December 2024, picking up from a 1.6% growth in November and beating market consensus of 3.3%.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS (CON'T)

The unemployment rate in Malaysia edged lower to 3.2% in November 2024 from 3.3% in the year prior. Meanwhile, the labor force participation rate increased to 70.5% in November from 70.1% in the same month a year earlier.

We limit our investment exposure to short-term deposit placements due to the very low risk nature of the Fund.

RISKS

Returns not guaranteed	The investment of the fund is subject to market fluctuations and its inherent risk. There is NO GUARANTEE on the investment returns, nor any assurance that the target fund's investment objective will be achieved.
General market environment risk	Market risk refers to the possibility that an investment will lose value because of a general decline in financial markets, due to economic, political and/or other factors, which will result in a decline in the target fund's NAV.
Inflation risk	This is the risk that your investment in the target fund may not grow or generate income at a rate that keeps pace with inflation. This would reduce your purchasing power even though the value of the investment in monetary terms has increased.
Financing risk	This risk occurs when you obtain financing to finance your investment. The inherent risk of investing with money obtained from financing includes you being unable to service the financing payments.
Manager's risk	This risk refers to the day-to-day management of the target fund by Principal which will impact the performance of the target fund, e.g. investment decisions undertaken by Principal as a result of an incorrect view of the market may adversely affect the performance of the target fund.
Reclassification of Shariah non-compliant status risk	This risk refers to the risk that the currently held Shariah-compliant securities in the target fund may be reclassified as Shariah non-compliant in the periodic review of the securities by the Shariah Advisory Council of the Securities Commission Malaysia (SACSC), the Shariah adviser, the Shariah boards of the relevant Islamic indices or the Shariah adviser of the issuer.
Credit and default risk	Investment of the target fund may involve a certain degree of credit and default risk. Generally, credit and default risk is the risk of loss due to the counterparty's and/or issuer's non-payment or untimely payment of the investment amount as well as the returns on investment. Principal aim to mitigate this risk by performing fundamental credit research and analysis to determine the creditworthiness of its counterparty and/or issuer. Investment in the target fund is not the same as placing funds in a Shariah-compliant deposit with a licensed Islamic financial institution. There are risks involved and investors should rely on their own evaluation to assess the merits and risks when investing in the target fund.
