FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

In September 2019, the Fund's performance is 0.21%, outperforming the benchmark by 1.17%.

The FTSE Bursa Malaysia Kuala Lumpur Composite Index ("KLCI") declined 1.75% in Sep (YTD: -6.3%) to 1,584 which was in line with regional equity markets. Domestically, the breakdown in Axiata-Telenor merger talks was a dampener on the benchmark index. Top 3 contributors to the index decline include AXIATA (-14.9%), Digi (-5.4%) and Sime Plantation (-5.0%). The decline was moderated by gains in Petronas Chemical (+8.8%), MISC (+7.4%) and MAHB (+5.7%). By sectors, export-oriented sectors such as tech and glove have generally posted gains on the back of weaker MYR and seasonal uptick in volume loading for selected tech stocks. Besides these, oil & gas sector has also gained on the back of higher crude oil prices. All eyes will be on Budget 2020 which will be revealed by the government on 11 Oct. Although government's fiscal space is constrained, we expect the federal government to kick start infrastructure spending again to boost the economy. Investment decision may be made on mega projects such as MRT3 and PTMP. To balance the budget, the government may announce further asset monetization initiatives involving sale of non-strategic assets. While no new taxes are expected to be introduced, digital tax is expected to be implemented. There may also be concern that tax incentives for certain industries such as glove may be curtailed while sin tax hike on NFOs cannot be ruled out.

During the month, after the significant tightening seen in August, market decides to pocket in the gain before the FTSE Russell decision. This saw some sell off with parts of the MGS curve traded higher. The worst hit was the longest tenure 30-year as this was also the one that moved the most last month which saw yield went below 4%. This couple with the slew of central banks decision saw the steepening of the MGS curve. The 3-, 5-, 7-, 10-, 15-, 20- and 30-year MGS yields traded 3.14%(-3bps), 3.25%(+1bps), 3.34% (+6bps), 3.36% (+4bps), 3.55% (+6ps), 3.61% (+3bps) and 3.93% (+12bps) respectively at the end of September.
