FUND MANAGER’S COMMENTS

The Fund delivered 0.27% in April 2024 which was outperforming the benchmark by 2 bps and delivered 3.30% in the 12-months period ending 30 April 2024, outperforming the benchmark by 25 bps.

The 1Q2024 GDP advanced estimate came in at +3.9% YoY (est: +3.9%; 4Q2023: +3.0%), with the growth being broad-based across all sectors (i.e. services, manufacturing, agriculture, mining and construction). This will be supportive for the full year 2024 growth as most economists are expecting a progressively rising GDP growth in the coming quarters.

Despite the increase in service tax from 6% to 8% from 1st March (except F&B and telco), the headline inflation stayed at +1.8% YoY (est: +2.0%; Feb-24: +1.8%) – while core inflation eased to +1.7% YoY (Feb-24: +1.8%). With this, headline and core inflation averaged +1.7% and +1.8% YoY, respectively in 1Q2024. There is still some upside risk to inflation given the planned rationalization in fuel subsidies but should broadly fall within the 2 - 3.5% range that BNM has projected.

Exports experienced another month of marginal decline at -0.8% YoY in March (Feb-24: -0.8% YoY), due to the drop in agriculture exports (-17.3%) offset by marginal increases in mining exports (+0.2%) and manufacturing exports (+0.7%). Meanwhile, imports accelerated to +12.5% YoY (Feb-24: +8.0% YoY). The surplus in trade balance amounted to RM12.8 billion during the month (Feb-24: RM11.2 billion). Despite being in contraction, Malaysia’s manufacturing PMI rose slightly to 49.0 in April (Feb-24: 48.5), indicating that GDP growth is running at a slightly improved rate vis-à-vis end-2023.

We limit our investment exposure to short-term deposit placements due to the very low risk nature of the Fund.
