FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

- Global equities rose in July, helped by major central banks' decisions to hold interest rates steady.
- Economic growth in US and the eurozone improved but wage growth lagged estimates.
- Elsewhere, the energy sector was buoyed by oil prices rebounding above US$50 a barrel as crude stockpiles declined.
- In July, we initiated on Jardine Matheson given its attractive spread of underlying business, as well as Amore Pacific Group on valuation weakness. We introduced Australia supplier of car parts ARB Corp and Indonesian cement company Indocement. We also topped up positions in apparels retailer TJX, as weak US retail figures weighed its share price. We exited Astellas Pharma, in light of deteriorating confidence in its product pipeline and pending expiry of patents.
